Dear Parents,

As you prepare for your son's or daughter's Summer Break I'd like to remind you that they should still read daily. Reading is the gateway to academic success!

I have chosen the book entitled; Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Students are to write a book report after reading. The book report should include the following: Title, Author, Copyright date, Illustrator, Setting, Characters, and the Main Idea along with other important details. The book is available from Amazon in paperback form for $5.63. If you choose you can download the book via Kindle for $7.99.

The book report should be written on loose leaf paper. It should also include a cover page. Upon their return to school students should bring their book report to school.

Do have a safe, enjoyable and productive summer break!!

Cordially,

Ms. Harrigan
